Perpetual announces Anthony Aboud as Deputy Head of Equities

21 December 2022

Perpetual has today announced Anthony Aboud as Deputy Head of Equities for Perpetual Asset Management Australia (PAMA).

Mr Aboud has more than 23 years' experience and has been with Perpetual since 2012. He will continue to work closely with Vince Pezzullo, who in November was appointed Head of Equities, and the broader PAMA team.

PAMA Group Executive Amanda Gillespie said: "Anthony is a highly regarded investor and has extensive experience in the Australian market including particular expertise in managing long/short portfolios.

"Anthony's appointment comes at a time when the team has never been stronger – with depth and breadth across both the portfolio manager and analyst teams – and positive momentum across investment performance and fund flows.

"Vince, Anthony and the team will continue to work toward delivering for our clients across our Australian Equities funds and mandates."

Perpetual also announces the appointment of Louise Sandberg as Senior Equities Analyst. Louise, who has more than 13 years' experience in investment research roles, commenced in her role in October and will primarily cover large and small cap companies across property, discretionary consumer and consumer staples.
