Perpetual announces new Head of Distribution, Asia

Perpetual Limited (“Perpetual Group”) (ASX:PPT) the multi-boutique asset manager and owner of Barrow Hanley, Trillium, J O Hambro Capital Management, Perpetual Asset Management, Pental, TSW and Regnan, has announced the appointment of Lily Cheung as Head of Distribution, Asia.

Lily joined the Perpetual Group last year having spent the last 14 years at MFS Investment Management, where she was responsible for institutional clients covering central banks, SWF’s, public and private pension funds out of Hong Kong. The role she last held at MFS Investment Management was Managing Director, Sales and Relationship Management.

Lily has recently relocated to Singapore and will be responsible for growing the Perpetual client base across the institutional channel in Asia.

Perpetual Global Head of Distribution, Adam Quaife said: “We are delighted to have Lily join the global asset management team. She brings over 15 years of experience in the asset management industry and will play an instrumental role in building our growing presence in Asia as well as bringing the full suite of investment boutiques within Perpetual to the Asian market.

“Perpetual now has key executives leading distribution teams across Asia, Europe, the Middle East, Africa and the Americas, truly highlighting the global presence we have as an asset management business.”

Commenting on her appointment, Lily said: “It’s a really exciting time to be joining Perpetual Group and bringing their multi-boutique investment proposition with a diverse range of investment capabilities to clients across Asia.”
